SUBJECT: COVID 19 – Travel regulations

The below COVID-19 Health regulations are made available to assist you when customers are accepted. Please make sure that you verify the requirements prior to acceptance. Some countries can penalise the airline if customers arrive without a negative PCR. The wearing of facemasks is no longer mandatory for airlines in South Africa. Masks have proven to be very effective in combatting the spread of COVID 19, however, customers and crew now have a choice of whether to wear a face mask or not. Customers must be reminded they need to comply with health and safety protocols of the country of their destination.
