

Date: January 29, 2024

Revised Guideline Regarding Transit Exclusive Domestic Flight

Please be advised that Korean Air will make changes to its guideline regarding Transit Exclusive Domestic Flight as follows;

1. Applicable Flight/Route

- Transit Exclusive Domestic Flight
- ICN↔PUS & ICN↔TAE

2. Changes

- When issuing a ticket that combines Korean Air international flights with Transit Exclusive Domestic Flight, only sector fare (MKE/DKE) can be applied on Korean domestic portion.
 - If the itinerary includes Transit Exclusive Domestic Flight, THRU fare will no longer apply.
- ※ Applying KE international Thru fare is permitted when a flight departing from/arriving at GMP is used on Korean domestic routes.

<Example>

Itinerary	How Pricing Works on/after April 1, 2024
YYZ/ICN/PUS	YYZ/ICN International Fare + ICN/PUS Sector Fare
YVR/ICN/-GMP/PUS	1) YVR/PUS International Thru Fare or 2) YVR/ICN International Fare + GMP/PUS Sector Fare

- Transit Exclusive Domestic Flight segments must be issued in a single ticket together with KE international flight.
 - Tickets must be issued on KE.

- KE fares & KE flights (including KE Marketing Codeshare Flights) must be used.
- Combination of Revenue and Award ticket is not allowed.

3. Effective Date : Ticketing on/after April 1, 2024

4. Remarks

- Korean Air's Transit Exclusive Domestic Flight is only for use of transit passengers connecting from/to international flights at Incheon within 24 hours of arrival without making a stopover.
- System will be updated on April 1, 2024. Please refer to GDS for details.

